Naba Kumar Nath, Central Executive Member, AASU vehemently criticized the government which is run by none other than former AASU President Sarbana Sonowal for apathetic attitude to poor families of Swahid Putul Saikia and Swahid Gajen Engti. Coming down heavily on Assam government policy to rehabilitate martyrs families of Assam Movement, Nath said that state government completely ignored the families of Food Movement.

World Accreditation Day celebrated

HT Bureau

GUWAHATI, June 10: Accredited inspection, testing or certification is not only important for promoting confidence in them but has become a vital tool in international trade by facilitating acceptance of certifications and test reports across borders. This was stated by Dr. USN Murty while speaking during the celebration of World Accreditation Day in Guwahati on Monday.
Meanwhilke, A K Nath, GM (Quality Control), IOCL, who chaired the technical session stated that evaluation of conformity is the mantra for businesses in today's world and all businesses need to use accredited conformity assessment in India to avoid or reduce risks to business. The World Accreditation Day, which actually is on 9 June, is a global initiative, jointly established by the international bodies, International Accreditation Forum (IAF) and the International Laboratory Accreditation Cooperation (ILAC), to raise awareness of the importance of accreditation among stakeholders. The three accreditation boards under the Quality Council of India : National Accreditation Board for Certification Bodies (NABCB), National Accreditation Board for Education and Training (NABET), National Accreditation Board for Testing and Calibration Laboratories (NABL) organised the celebrations simultaneously at four locations in Delhi, Mumbai, Guwahati, Chennai.

No respite for commuters over NH38
